

Crelogix Is Your Education Partner

We make it easy for you to get credit now, receive the training you need for the job you deserve! You should have the best and most affordable options to pay for your tuition needs, which is why we work with career colleges to provide tuition financing.

It's Fast. It's Easy. It's Affordable.

We Have You Covered

Access to quality education is vital for your future opportunities. Our team will work quickly to help you finance your tuition costs when they arise. Financing options are available for the following programs:

- Private and public career college courses
- Adult education programs
- Long-distance education
- Aviation training
- Workshops and seminars
- Truck Driver Training

Why Crelogix?

Responsible financing allows you to get the education you deserve today and pay it off over time, instead of having to wait. We offer an easy application process with flexible loan terms allowing you to repay the balance completely or with lump-sum payments at any time without penalty - the choice is yours!

Financing with Crelogix offers you:

- Affordable interest rates
- Loan protection to cover your future
- Pay for unexpected additional costs
- Low monthly payments
- Loans up to $15,000
- Your tuition will be paid before classes begin

About Crelogix

Crelogix is Canada's most business friendly specialty finance company. Since 1974 Crelogix has been creating consumer finance programs people love by providing its capital, technology, industry expertise and financial know-how to providers of consumer products and services.

Through consultation with our partners, Crelogix creates the lowest cost and most convenient sales finance programs, structured to help our partners attract and retain more customers, close more sales and increase their overall profitability.

"Creating consumer finance programs that people love."

For more information, please contact us

Visit www.crelogix.com/application or Call us at 1-800-667-6640

