Ontario Truck Driving School is training professionals! Entry level drivers graduating from OTDS have a sense of confidence, an attitude for success and a willingness to continue building upon the skills that they have already gained in their commercial driving education.

Dove Creek's experience with OTDS graduates has been a positive one and they are certainly our preferred school for hiring entry level drivers.

Having been a graduate of Ontario Truck Driving School myself in 2004, I can personally attest to the quality of training content, equipment, and knowledgeable instructors. The skills that I built within their London facility enabled me to become quickly employed with a quality carrier, create a reputation of excellence and safety and, are even being employed to this day in my current position of Safety & Compliance and Recruiting Manager. Admittedly, I draw up the OTDS resources to continue building a culture of professionalism and safety on Dove Creek's team!

Thank you Ontario Truck Driving School for your continued excellence, your graduates move right to the top of Dove Creek's recruiting list and have proven to be quality drivers and a true part of the team!

Sincerely,
